The Principal
Institute of Hotel Management

Sir,

The abrupt closure of institutes due to COVID19 pandemic has effected physical academic activity and assessment. The continued risks and changing dynamics of the situation has prevented institutes from reopening, conduct of classes and examinations. Since no pen and paper examinations are currently possible, UGC has issued guidelines where for promotional/ intermediate semesters, grading of students can be composite of internal assessment and previous semester aggregate marks.

After relevant discussions and approvals, it has been decided that, exclusively for 2019-20 academic year, students results for BSc. Sem-II, IV and MSc Sem-II will be processed based on 70% aggregate of previous semester and 30% on mid-term marks. All the students will be promoted but secure reappear, as per performance.

Students who have applied for re-appear subjects of these semesters, similar grading criterion will be applied.

Online theory classes for BSc 2nd year (both batches ie. Sem-III & IV / IT and in-institute) will need to be conducted, since no Industrial Training is possible, currently. Similarly, 3rd year Sem-V and MSc Sem-III online classes can commence but not later than 10th August 2020 for academic year 2020-21, as per curriculum. Institutes will prepare their own time table, accordingly.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Satvir Singh
Director (Studies)
